

Youth Programs

Wednesdays

10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

“Roar into Reading” Story Time

Join us for stories and songs. Upcoming topics include lions, bunnies, trees, and chicks. Let's have fun reading together!

Tuesday, April 5

3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Toddler Tales (Ages 2-4)

With Easter just around the corner, we'll read stories, make a bunny craft, and have an egg hunt.

Wednesday, April 13

1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

Free Play (All Ages)

Get creative using Keva Planks, Magna Tiles, or Legos. Pictures of final creations will be posted on the library's Facebook page

Thursday, April 14

6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Teen Time (Ages 13-19)

It's time for teens and their friends to gather and compete in the Easter Olympics! How good are you at balancing eggs, knocking over bunnies, and running relays with jelly beans? On your marks, get set, come to Teen Time!

Friday, April 15

1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Movie Day (Children of all ages)

An Easter Egg Adventure tells the story of Timothy Take-It—a rooster who has gone bad. He and his gang steal the eggs from Egg Town, and some brave residents try to retrieve the eggs. Popcorn will be provided.

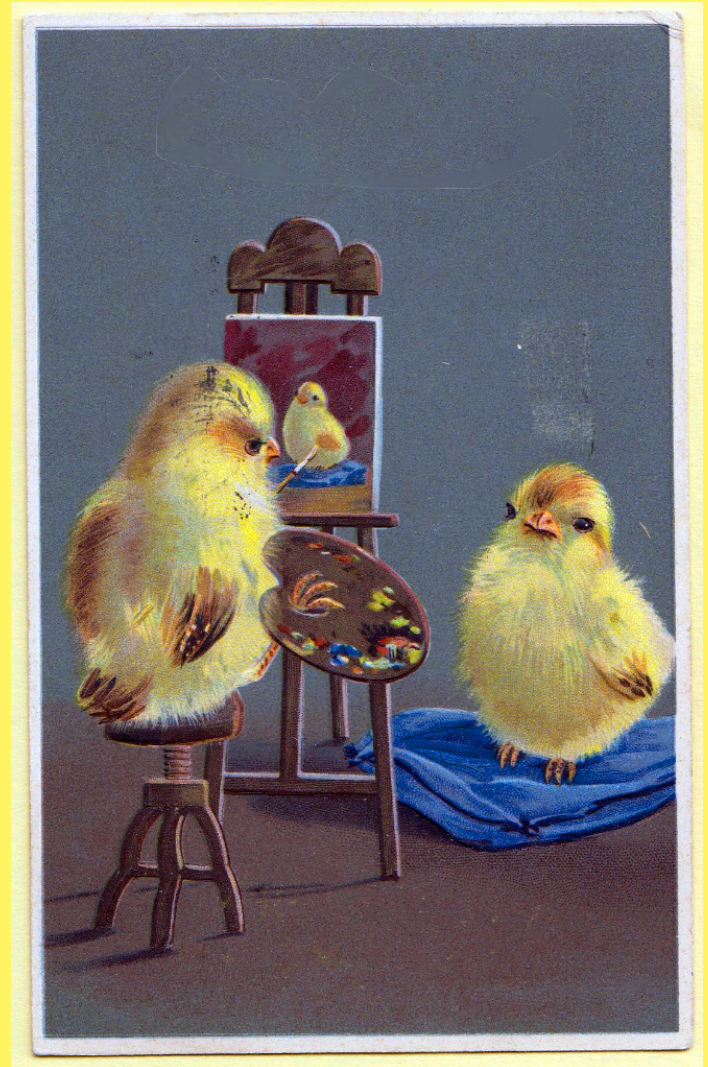

Tuesday, April 19

3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Toddler Tales (Ages 2-4)

Children will learn about Ramadan, the Muslim month of fasting, through stories, crafts, and a fun treat.

Adult Programs

Tuesdays

1:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Euchre

Do you love to play Euchre? Meet new friends as you play this popular card game.

Wednesdays

10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Mah Jongg

Participants will learn how to play both Chinese and American Mah Jongg. No experience necessary—just a willingness to play a fun game with new friends.

Monday, April 11

6:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Cookie Decorating

Looking for something fun and pretty to bring to Easter dinner? What about hand-decorated egg cookies? Participants will learn how to make two different types of icing and learn three different icing techniques.

Wednesday, April 20

6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Adult Sewing Class: Potholders

Learn how to make a circular potholder. All supplies will be provided. If participants prefer to use their own fabrics and thread, a supply list is available.

Friday, April 22

12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

Book Soup: English Romantic Poets

Take a lunch break and enjoy homemade soup and a choice of sandwich while being entertained by Lyons Public Library Director Joe O'Toole, who will discuss the English Romantic Poets Wordsworth, Coleridge, Blake, Byron, Keats, and Shelley.

April is National Poetry Month, and we are having a Haiku Writing Contest!

Here are the details:

- The contest runs April 4 through April 23.
- There are three age categories: Youth (6-12); Teen (13-18); and Adult (19 and up).
- There is a limit of two submissions per person.
- Judging will take place the week of April 25th.
- Winners will be announced on May 2.
- The prize in each category is a poetry book.
- Poems may be submitted via e-mail to lyonspubliclibrary@gmail.com; via U.S. Mail to Haiku Contest, Lyons Public Library, 122 Broad Street, Lyons, NY 14489; or by bringing them to the library.

Monday, April 25

6:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Jewelry Making

Do you want to make a special gift for an important person in your life? (Mother's Day is quickly approaching!) Instructor Samantha Fosdick will help participants create a pair of earrings and a charm bracelet.

Wednesday, April 27

6:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Adult Reading and Discussion Program

Library Director Joe O'Toole will facilitate the second discussion session of a six-month adult program titled "Memorable American Fiction from West to East." This month, participants will have read Native Son by Richard Wright. This program is made possible by the Lyons Public Library, the Friends of the Lyons Public Library, and Humanities New York.

Thursday, April 28

6:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Book Art: Hydrangeas

Learn how to alter book pages into a flower! Participants will create two paper hydrangeas from discarded books, a foam ball, and some fabric dye. Wear old clothes in case the dye gets on you!

Please note that space is limited for all programs, so registration is required. For more information or to register, visit lyonspubliclibrary.org and click on "Our Event Calendar" or call (315) 946-9262.
